Tea, called “cha” in Korean, was introduced to Korea from China sometime in the 6th or 7th century. In Korea, tea has always been more than just a simple beverage. Artistic activities, including music, poetry, and painting, flourished as part of tea ceremonies; thus it is referred to as the “Dew of Wisdom.”

Program:

1. Introduction of Korean tea

2. Korean tea ceremony

- Accompanied by geomungo musician Hyeyong Shin

3. Tea sharing
