Friday, August 3:
Keynote Address, introduced by Robert Weller:
4:00-6:00 pm: Peter C. Perdue “Ecologies of Empire: Qing Cosmopolitanism and Modern Nationalism”

Saturday, August 4:
9:00 am: Welcome Remarks

Panel 1: Production, Planning, and the Economics of China’s Sustainability, Robert Weller, Chair
9:15-11:30 am:
• Po-Yi Hung “Tea Forest in the Making: Tea Production and Reconfiguration of Modernity, Science and Nature on China’s Southwest Frontier”
• Alainna Thomas “From Bogota to Jinan – Understanding sustainable transport policy transfer in China”
• Andrew Hao “The Temporalities of Corporate Sustainability Initiatives”

Discussants: Martin Saxter and Victor Teo

Panel 2: Emerging Research at the Academia Sinica, Ts’ui-jung Liu, Chair
11:45am -1:00 pm:
• featuring Dr. Shao-Hua Liu, Dr. Shiyung Michael Liu, and Dr. Chih-Chieh Tang

Panel 3: Borderlands and the Environment in the Qing Dynasty, You-tien Hsing, Chair
2:00-4:15 pm:
• Peter Lavelle “Chinese Horticulture and the Politics of Reproduction along Late Qing Frontiers”
• Benjamin Levey “Kinship and Captivity: The Jungar Diaspora”
• Jonathan Schlesinger “Purity and the Qing Borderlands: Fur Depletion and Empire Building in the Early 19th Century”

Discussants: David Bello and Wen-hsin Yeh

Keynote Address, introduced by Wen-hsin Yeh:
4:30-6:30 pm: Ruth Rogaski "Making Sense of a Mountain: Changbaishan, 1600 to the Present"

All events will be held at the Institute of East Asian Studies, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th Floor, Berkeley CA 94720
For more information please call (510) 642-2809 or visit http://ieas.berkeley.edu/events