

The Center for Chinese Studies has moved. Please check the location for each event.

Tuesday, September 2, 4-6 pm

Location: 180 Doe Library

The Shangshu: New Perspectives on the Documents Classic

Michael Nylan, History, UCB; Kai Vogelsang, University of Hamburg; Joachim Gentz, University of Edinburgh; Ruhue He, History, UCB

Cosponsored with the Institute of East Asian Studies

Global China Colloquium I

Friday, September 12, 4-6 pm

Location: 180 Doe Library

The Specter of Global China: Contesting the Power and Peril of Chinese State Capital in Zambia

Ching Kwan Lee, Sociology, UCLA

Saturday, September 13, 10-noon

Location: 1995 University Avenue

Student workshop with Ching Kwan Lee (contact Jesse Rodenbiker at rodenbiker@berkeley.edu)

Global China Colloquium II

Monday, September 22, 4-6 pm

Location: 180 Doe Library

Mapping from the Water: The Political Economy of the Selden Map

Timothy Brook, Department of History and Institute of Asian Research, University of British Columbia

Global China Colloquium III

The Elvera Kwang Siam Lim Memorial Lecture

Thursday, October 9, 4-6 pm

Location: The Faculty Club, Heinz Room

Zhang Yimou and the Socialist Legacy: From Red Sorghum to Happy Times

Wendy Larson, East Asian Languages and Literatures, University of Oregon, Portland

Friday, October 10, 9- 5 pm

Location: 180 Doe Library

From Mandarins to Mulian: A Celebration of David Johnson's Legacy

Beverly Bossler, UC Davis; Ned Davis, University of Hawaii; Andrea Goldman, UCLA; Qitao Guo, UC Irvine; Mark Halperin, UC Davis; Robert Hymes, Columbia University; Keith Knapp, The Citadel; Lin Ching-chih, National Chengchi University; Peter Nickerson, independent scholar.

Saturday, October 11, 10-noon

Location: 1995 University Avenue

Student workshop with Wendy Larson (contact Jesse Rodenbiker at rodenbiker@berkeley.edu)

Monday, October 13, 12:30 pm

Location: 180 Doe Library

Comparative Ethnic DNA in China

Aihwa Ong, Anthropology, UC Berkeley

Wednesday, October 29, noon

Location: 180 Doe Library

Pirates of the China Seas: East Asian Popular Music and the "Archipelago of Empire"

Andrew F. Jones, East Asian Languages and Cultures, UC Berkeley

(continued over)

Thursday, October 30, 4-6

Location: 180 Doe Library

The Materiality of “Shu” 書 (Documents)

Dirk Meyer, Oriental Studies, University of Oxford

Global China Colloquium IV

Friday, October 31, 4-6 pm

Location: 180 Doe Library

Genealogies of Chinese Sovereignty Since 1492

Teemu Ruskola, School of Law, Emory University

Saturday, November 1, 10-noon

Location: 1995 University Avenue

Student workshop with Teemu Ruskola (contact Jesse Rodenbiker at rodenbiker@berkeley.edu)

Global China Colloquium V

Monday, November 17, 4-6 pm

Location: 180 Doe Library

1943: China at the Crossroads

Joseph Esherick, History, UC San Diego

Date: tba

Location: 1995 University Avenue

Student workshop with Joseph Esherick (contact Jesse Rodenbiker at rodenbiker@berkeley.edu)

Friday, December 5, 9-5; Saturday, December 6, 9-noon

Location: 1995 University Avenue, 5th floor

Organized Knowledge and State Socialism, 1949-1978

(Open to UC Berkeley faculty and students only)

Colloquium talks and conferences are free and open to the public. • Workshops are open to students only. • All events are wheelchair accessible. • Check the website for the most current information.