

Center for Chinese Studies
University of California, Berkeley

Spring 2002 Colloquia

All Listed events are free and open to the public. Wheelchair accessible.

For more information, please visit our website at: <http://ieas.berkeley.edu/events/>

Berkeley China Colloquia

IEAS Conference Room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th Fl.

Friday, January 25, 4:00-6:00 p.m.

Chris Berry, Associate Professor, Film Studies/Theater, Dance, and Performance Studies, UC Berkeley
"How Should a Chinese Woman Look? Revisiting 'the Look' and the De-Westernization of Film Studies"
Discussant: Miriam Sas, Assistant Professor, Comp. Lit./East Asian Languages & Cultures, UC Berkeley

Friday, February 8, 4:00-6:00 p.m.

Timothy Wong, Professor, Chinese, Arizona State University
"Literacy and Orality in the Chinese Xiaoshuo Tradition"
Discussant: Stephen West, Professor, East Asian Languages and Cultures, UC Berkeley

Friday, February 22, 4:00-6:00 p.m.

Michael Nylan, Professor, History, UC Berkeley
"The Archaeology of Han Sichuan"
Discussant: Jeffrey Riegel, Professor, Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures, UC Berkeley

Friday—Saturday, March 8 & 9

Center for Chinese Studies Annual Symposium
"Anthropology in and of China: a cross-generation conversation"
See website for schedule

Tuesday, March 19, 4:00-6:00 p.m.

Ick Soo Kim, Associate Professor, Korea University
"Accession into the WTO: External Pressure for Internal Reforms in China"
Discussant: Gengsheng Zhou, Deputy Division Director, Foreign Trade & Economic Cooperation Ministry, PRC

Friday, March 22, 4:00-6:00 p.m.

Eric Hutton, Center for Chinese Studies Postdoctoral Fellow
"Nature and Ethics in the Philosophy of Xunzi"
Discussant: Michael Nylan, Professor, History, UC Berkeley

Monday, April 1, 4:00-6:00 p.m.

Xin Gu, Center for Chinese Studies Postdoctoral Fellow
"The Institutionalization of Unemployment in Urban China"
Discussant: Kevin O'Brien, Professor, Political Science, UC Berkeley

Friday, April 19, 4:00-6:00 p.m.

Hy Van Luong, Professor, Anthropology, University of Toronto
"The Local Dynamics of Social Transformation in Rural Vietnam in the 1990s"
Discussant: Darren Zook, Lecturer, Political Science, UC Berkeley
Co-sponsored by the Center for Southeast Asian Studies

Friday, May 10, 4:00-6:00 p.m.

Ryosei Kokubun, Professor, Political Science, Keio University
"China's Entry into the WTO and its Implications for Japan"
Discussant: Tom Gold, Associate Professor, Sociology, UC Berkeley
Co-sponsored by the Center for Japanese Studies

Center for Chinese Studies
University of California, Berkeley

Spring 2002 Brown-Bag Lectures

All Listed events are free and open to the public. Wheelchair accessible.

For more information, please visit our website at: <http://ieas.berkeley.edu/events/>

Brown-Bag Lunch Lectures

3401 Dwinelle Hall

Wednesday, February 6, 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Jae Don Lee, Professor, Chinese Language and Literature, Ewha Womans University, Korea

"Chinese Phonology Research During The Chosun Dynasty (1392-1910)"

Lecture will be conducted in Chinese

Wednesday, February 20, 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Guangjian Xu, Professor, Economics, People's University, China

"Analysis of China's Macroeconomic Performance"

Wednesday, March 13, 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Bingzhong Gao, Professor, Institute of Sociology and Anthropology, Peking University

"Legitimation of Chinese Grass-Roots Associations"

Wednesday, April 17, 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Kuiyi Shen, Postdoctoral Fellow, Center for East Asian Studies, Stanford

"Art as Propaganda: Shanghai Poster Designers before the Cultural Revolution"

Wednesday, May 1, 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Siyuan Cao, President, Beijing Siyuan Research Center for Social Sciences

"The reform of China's political system and the CCP's self-imposed system"

Lecture will be conducted in Chinese