

Friday, January 24, 4 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

Chinese Labor Unions in an Era of Great Transformation: Challenges and Best Practices in Guangdong

He Gaochao, Political Science, Sun Yat-Sen University in Guangzhou

Monday, January 27, 7:30 pm, The Marsh Berkeley, 2120 Allston Way, Berkeley

Lin Sheng-xiang & Band: I-Village Tour

Free concert. No tickets required. Doors open at 7.

Tuesday, January 28, 4 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

Panel discussion: Dispatches from China: Evolving Challenges for Foreign Correspondents

Mary Kay Magistad, formerly with PRI/BBC's The World; Melissa Chan, Al Jazeera America; Paul Mooney, formerly with The South China Morning Post. Moderated by Maureen Fan, formerly with the Washington Post

Wednesday, February 5, 3:30 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

Hong Kong - Where China and Global Advantages Converge

C. M. Leung, Hong Kong Commissioner to the United States

Friday, February 7, 6 pm, Mandarin Garden Restaurant, 2025 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley

CCS Annual Chinese New Year's Banquet

$15 UC Berkeley students and staff; $27 faculty and community. Reservations and prepayment required.

Contact Angel Ryono at ccs-vs@berkeley.edu or (510)643-6322 for more information.

Tuesday, February 11, 4 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

Elements: Reimagining Knowledge Production Alongside Chinese Medicine

Mei Zhan, Anthropology, UC Irvine

Wednesday, February 12, 4 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

How the Muslims of Canton Saved China from a Spanish Invasion in 1584: China, the Indian Ocean, and the Islamic World in the 16th Century

Zvi Ben-Dor Benite, Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies; History Department, New York University

Friday, February 14, 4 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

Colonial Modernity, Sonic Mediation, and Musical (Dis)Connections in the Japanese Empire: On the Phonographic Turn in East Asian History

Fumitaka Yamauchi, Anthropology, National Taiwan University; Visiting scholar, Harvard-Yenching Institute

Tuesday, February 18, 4:00 pm, 3401 Dwinelle Hall

"Canonic Commentary as a Medium of Individual Expression in Chinese Philosophical Discourse": From Wang Bi, Guo Xiang and He Yan to Zhu Xi, Wang Yangming, and Wang Fuzhi

Andrew Plaks, East Asian Studies, Princeton University

Wednesday, February 19, 4 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

Art, Politics, and Money in Recent Chinese Cinema

Carma Hinton, Art History, George Mason University

Wednesday, February 26, 4 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

Pacific Rim or Pacific Garbage Patch?: The Ocean and Ecological Crisis in the Post-3/11 World

Wu Ming-yi, author and environmental activist; Eric Hartge, Senior Research Analyst, Center for Ocean Solutions, Stanford University; Harry Scheiber, Director, Law of the Sea Institute, UC Berkeley

Moderated by David Roland-Holst, Agricultural and Resource Economics, UC Berkeley

Please check the website to see events added throughout the semester.

All events are free and open to the public • Wheelchair accessible

Friday, February 28, 4 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

The Novel and the Sea in an Age of Ecological Catastrophe: A Discussion of Taiwanese author Wu Ming-Yi's The Man with the Compound Eyes

Wu Ming-Yi, author and professor of literature, National Dong Hwa University, Hualien, Taiwan; Margaret Cohen, Comparative Literature, Stanford University; Darryl Sterk, translator of Man with the Compound Eyes; Graduate Program in Translation and Interpretation, National Taiwan University

Moderated by Andrew Jones, East Asian Languages and Cultures, UC Berkeley

Friday, April 18, 3-5 pm; Saturday, April 19, 10-4, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

Berkeley-Stanford Graduate Student Conference in Modern Chinese Humanities

Friday, April 18, 5 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

When China Existed: Scholarship, Activism, and Asian Studies

Keynote speech for Berkeley-Stanford Graduate Student Conference in Modern Chinese Humanities

Fabio Lanza, History, University of Arizona, Tucson

Monday, April 21, 4 pm, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor

The Privilege of Speech: China's Internet Conundrum

Rogier Creemers, Comparative Media Law and Policy, University of Oxford, Centre for Socio-Legal Studies

Friday, May 2, 3-6:30; Saturday, May 3, 9:30-4:00,

Modern Chinese Style: Words and Worlds in Twentieth-century China

A conference in honor of Professor Theodore Hutters

Tuesday and Wednesday, May 20 and 21, IEAS conference room, 2223 Fulton Street, 6th floor.

Conference: Territorial Questions of China's Borderlands

Check website for agenda and schedule.

Please check the website to see events added throughout the semester.