

The P.Y. and Kinmay W. Tang Center for Silk Road Studies offers an annual competitive fellowship for continuing graduate students in all academic fields with a concentration in Silk Road studies, who demonstrate high academic distinction. Research should be in keeping with the mission of the Tang Center to advance study of the historical overland and maritime exchange networks commonly referred to as the Silk Roads. The Fund shall be used to support field study travel and other expenses related to the individual's research.

The award recipient will coordinate with the Tang Center for Silk Road Studies to give a public presentation on their research. A final report describing the use of funds will also be required.

Amount of award: $5,000

All documents must be received by 5:00 PM on Friday, April 15, 2022. Late applications will not be considered.

Required application documents

1. Application Cover Sheet (PDF file)
2. A current Curriculum Vitae
3. A detailed Research/Study Proposal for the period of requested support (max. 2 pages)
4. A List of All Financial Assistance received during graduate study, including fellowships from ALL sources (extramural fellowships, research assistantships, teaching appointments, and grants)
5. A complete List of All Support, including the amount of funds requested for the coming academic year, with notes on the status of the requests
6. An Estimated Budget for your project
7. Two Letters of Recommendation (mailed or emailed separately to TCSRS).
8. A current Transcript (unofficial copies OK) from UCB together with a list of any courses currently in progress

Applications, except for recommendations, should be submitted by email as a single PDF file.

Recommendations can be sent by email to Franck Billé, Program Director (tangsilkroadcenter@berkeley.edu) with a copy to fbille@berkeley.edu, by the deadline.